Bang, Splat!

Somewhere, in the darkest depths of deepest space where the light of sanity shines quite dim, there is a strange little world called Deanna.

Deanna has two little moons called Ding ...and Dong.

Sometimes visiting space ships don't see Ding because it's so small and shiny ...and they accidentally bump Ding out of orbit.

Where Ding lands is a matter of chance: Nobody knows where Ding might land next time, but most Deannans (including insurance companies) would say they really don't mind - just as long as it's not on top of them!

The Tourism office always polishes the small moon up nicely before putting it back in orbit again. This is why Deanna is known as the only planet in the galaxy that plays ping-pong with its own moon.
