Not So Different

Life in the United States long ago was different from how it is now. But some things are the same. Details have changed. These are the small things. But the big things are a lot like they always were.

This family gathered to watch TV in 1947.

Then and Now

In the United States, people work and play. They love their families. They love their country. These things have always been true.

Families still enjoy watching TV together.
