The Best Days Are Birthdays

Malika loves birthdays. They are always a lot of fun! When her friends have birthday parties, she can't wait to go. She looks forward to the games and the food. But, her favorite part is talking with her friends about the terrific party they just attended! Malika wants to be sure that her party gives everyone plenty to talk about.

Malika's party is just two weeks away. So, she is giving it a lot of thought. She wants to include all of her friends. There have to be decorations. Games are important, too. Tasty food is a must! Malika realizes this birthday party will take effort. She has to plan it all out, and there is no time to lose. She wants her party to be special because her friends are special. After all, a birthday party only happens once a year. She wants everyone to remember hers.
