CHAPTER ONE

Little Miss Muffet Sat on a What?!

My name is Little Miss Muffet. I'm sure you know me from the nursery rhyme—you know, the one with the spider and the tuffet. Every day, except for weekends and holidays, I sit down on my tuffet, which is a small stool, to eat my curds and whey—and I do so hate curds and whey. I wait for the spider, she scares me away, and my breakfast gets cold...the end.

It may not be the best way to make a living, but it pays the bills. Well, at least it paid the bills until one day, a mighty strange thing happened. Instead of a tuffet, I found myself in a swivel chair, which is the kind of chair you can spin around in. And my nursery rhyme changed to:

Little Miss Muffet
Sat on a swivel chair
Eating her egg salad sandwich.
Along came a spider,
Who sat down on her head
And Miss Muffet told her to take a hike.

While I did enjoy the egg salad sandwich, which was a nice change of pace, I certainly did not appreciate the spider sitting on my head. When I asked her what she was doing, she said, “I have no idea. Also, you really should wash your hair more often.”

“What in the world happened to our nursery rhyme?” I screamed. “It’s ruined!”

“Don’t ask me,” said the spider. “I’m just as confused as you. In fact, I ran into the Itsy Bitsy Spider on the way to work. He said that instead of a
