Chapter One

The Girl in the City

Lin lived in an old and beautiful city in an old and beautiful country. The people there worked hard and took pride in their homes. They also enjoyed the lives they led. Soon, they would celebrate their city with a parade. Everyone was busy at work to make the event the best it could be.

There were a few special things about Lin. She had a freckle over her eye, just like her mother. She was as swift as a fox, just like her grandfather. And, she always told the truth.
