Chapter One

No Girls Allowed

“Football, football, football! That’s all anybody can talk about! It’s great that Uruguay won the first World Cup. But when are they going to let girls play? It’s 1930, after all!” Annabella said as she kicked the ball to her brother, Pablo.

“The game is too rough, Bella. I take it easy on you when we practice. Don’t you remember how rough it got on that field at the World Cup? Remember how many players got hurt? Football is not meant for girls!” Pablo pitched the football back to Bella for another kick. He’d been helping her improve her kick-off skills.
