Twisted!

Five friends faced forward on the first Friday in February. They were there for the Tongue Twister Take Down.

Trey trilled, “Time to twist!”

Shawn shouted, “She sells seashells by the seashore!”

Pippa piped, “Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers.”

Regis replied, “Red leather, yellow leather.”

Quinn quipped, “Quick kiss, quick kiss, quick kiss!”

Tongue Twisters

Tongue twisters can be words, phrases, or sentences. They are hard to say. What makes them so hard? Every tongue twister has letters or sounds that are the same or sound the same.
