Chompy & the Munchy Bunch

THE SPELLING TEST

by Nancy Beaule

Illustrated by Lauren Goldstein

The Spelling Test is Volume 6 in the series “Chompy & the Munchy Bunch,” about a carrot with superpower eyesight.

This book is dedicated to Brayden, Dylan and Mia, my super-creative grandchildren whose ideas are incorporated into the Munchy Bunch stories.

Vol. 6 of “Chompy & the Munchy Bunch”

Mrs. Bean slid her glasses to the tip of her nose.

“Candybar, maybe you’d like to tell the class what’s so funny.”

He leaned back in his chair. “I just smashed a bug. No big deal.”

“And then he ATE it,” Spud said, as more giggles erupted.

She marched to Candybar’s desk and picked a raisin off the floor. “One of your bugs?”

“Uh, it kinda looks like one,” he snickered.

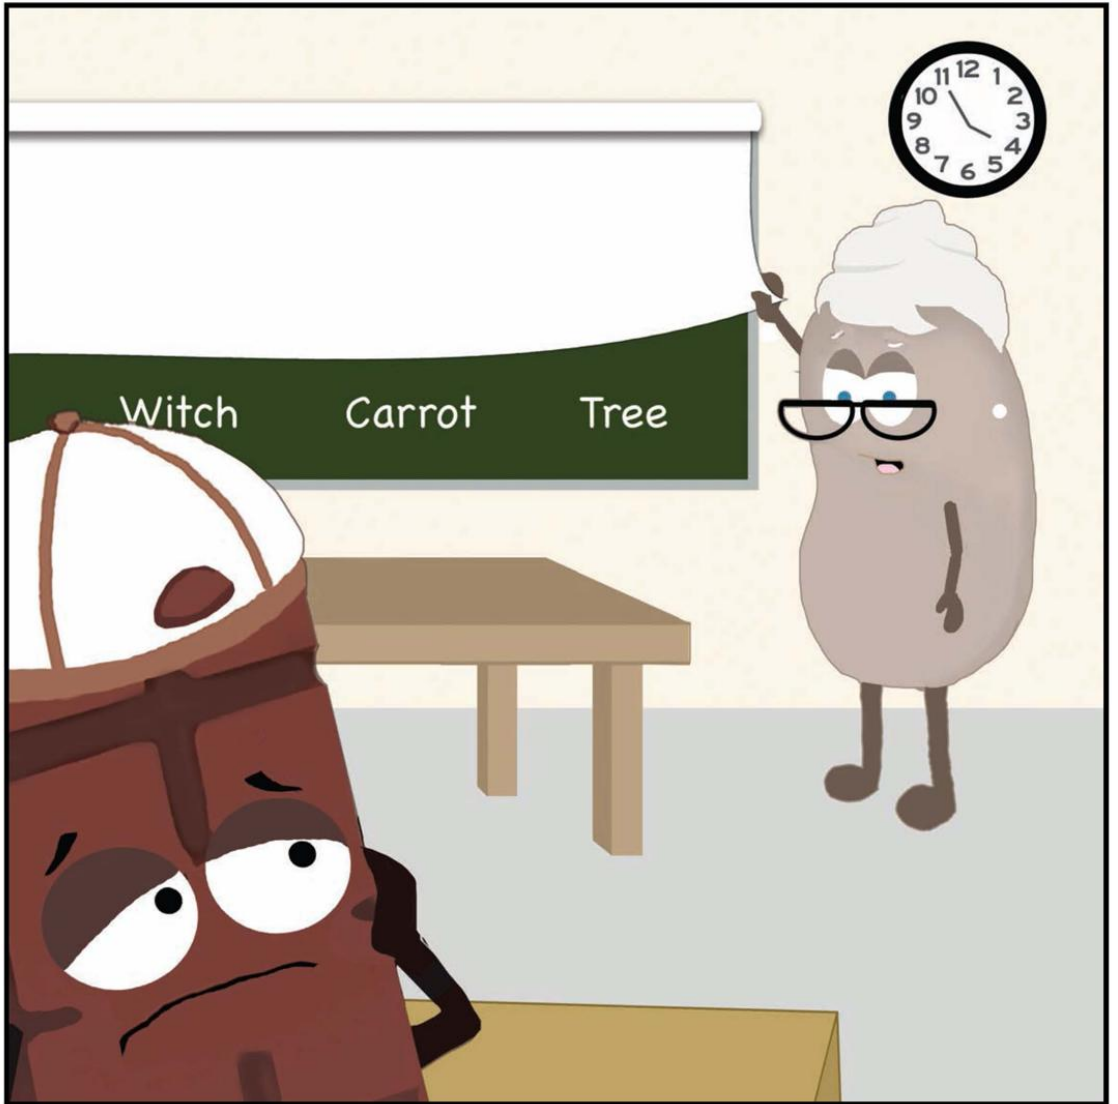

She crossed her arms. “Maybe if you spent less time eating bugs and more time studying, your grades would improve. You’re staying one hour after school to study.”

Candybar’s eyelids grew heavy as he stared at the clock. How long could one hour be?

“Have a nice nap?” Mrs. Bean snapped as she yanked the shade down over the words.

He bolted upright. “I wasn’t sleeping...uh, my brain was processing all those exciting words.”
