Holly stood outside in the rain. “I’m going to get soaked,” she thought. “I’ll probably catch a cold, too. What a rotten end to a rotten day.”

Holly saw her mom’s car waaaay at the back of the line. Mom was late - again! Now there was nothing to do but wait... wait in the rain.

When Holly finally climbed into the car, Mom cheerfully asked, "How was your day?"

"It was terrible! I forgot my show for Show and Tell, and we had to listen to Clarence talk about his BORING baseball trophy. When it was my turn, I was so nervous, I got the hiccups."

“Then we had to come in from recess early because of the stupid rain, and I dropped my sandwich on the lunchroom floor.

I'm STARVING and still SOAKED.
I'll probably catch a cold!”
