Colorful Chameleons

What's your favorite color? Do you like red or yellow? Maybe you like green the best. Did you know there is an animal that turns those colors? It's called a chameleon. Some people keep them as pets.

Chameleons need special care. They are a pet you watch, not a pet you play with. Still, chameleon owners love their "chammies."

“Chammies” are not as popular as dogs and cats and they require a bit more care compared to other pets. You might be ready for a pet chameleon if you’ve had a lizard before.

Cats and dogs are domesticated. They have been pets for a long time. Owning a chameleon is like owning a wild animal. Before you get one, learn all you can about it. This book is a great place to start.

DID YOU KNOW?

Chameleons catch their meals with their tongues. Their tongues can be longer than their body!
