“Clouds- The Eternal Traveller”

{The journey of the clouds, the sights they witness, and the enormous experience they attain during their daily travels are depicted in the poem ‘Clouds – the Eternal Traveller.’ The poet ascertains that the clouds must be treasuring this multitude of sights in their layered pages forever.}

The snowy, icy, silvery traveller,
The wondrous clouds,
The silent song sung as they pace,
The smiles exchanged with the varied sights beneath,
The shiny lines hemmed by the bluish land,
The tranquil grace mirrored by the greens below,
The serene rays reflected by the water,
The sporadic rains they befriend,
The birds that immerse in the foggy shield,
Capturing these marvels with their misty eyes,
Miraculous is this travelogue,
Wouldn't this journey be written on their soft layered pages?
