24 About the Author

You can buy many things at a grocery store.

What Is a Grocery Store?

You are in a store with aisles. The aisles have shelves of food. Where are you? You are at a grocery store. Your shopping cart has groceries in it. You are ready to pay. A cashier invites you to the cash register. The cashier is a worker who helps your family at the grocery store.

There are many different jobs to do at a grocery store.

People buy food at a grocery store. They also buy other items. Do you go shopping with your parents? What do you buy? Many people do lots of different jobs in grocery stores. They all work together. They help you find the things that you need. Let's look at some grocery store workers.

Make a Guess!

Guess how many cash registers are at your grocery store. Write down your guess. Count them the next time you go there. Was your guess right?

One section of the grocery store has produce.

Grocery Store Workers

Have you seen different sections in a grocery store? One section has fruits and vegetables. This is the produce section. Another has breads and cakes. This is the bakery section. Each section has workers to help you.

A worker must place food items on shelves.

The deli person slices meat and cheese for you. You talk to a baker when you order a cake. A produce worker shows you where your favorite fruit is.

Who else works in the store? Stock clerks place food and other items on shelves. Cashiers add up your shopping cart. They take your money and put it in the cash register. A bagger puts the things you bought in bags to take home.
