

Rumpled Stilton Skin

by Daniel Postgate

There once lived a young girl who owned a cheese shop.

But she hated the thick piece of crust on the end of stilton. It was hard and rumped. She always gave it to her dog instead. He loved it!

One day, the girl received an invitation to a royal party.

“I can’t go,” she groaned.

“All my clothes stink like cheese!”

Just then, a funny man appeared.
“I will make you look lovely and smell delightful,” he said, “and in return you will give me a present.”
