

MOTHER GHOST

NURSERY RHYMES
for LITTLE MONSTERS

Rachel Kolar • Illustrated by Roland Garrigue

Boys and Girls, Come Trick-or-Treat

Boys and girls, come trick-or-treat;
The moon is bright, the candy's sweet.
Leave your houses and leave the light
And join the goblin-folk in the night.
Come with a whoop and come with a call;
Come with brave hearts or not at all.
Up the walkway and to the door,
Hold out your sack with a monster roar.
Howl and cackle and shout and cheer
Because Halloween is finally here!

The illustration depicts a large, dark, gnarled tree with several owls and bats perched on its branches. The background is a solid purple color. The owls have large, white eyes, and some have red eyes. The bats have red eyes and are hanging from the branches. The tree has a hollowed-out section at the bottom left where an owl is visible.

The Man in the Moon

The man in the moon looked out of the sky,
And then we heard him say,
“I’m wide-awake! It’s now the time
All monsters came to play!”

To my sweet little monsters: Billy, Liza, and the Pumpkin
