King's Cross

The world is on the go at King's Cross! It is one of the busiest places in London. There are parks, shops, and places to eat. And there is a famous train station known around the world.

King's Cross

The station was named after a statue called King's Cross. It was built in honor of King George.

King George lived long ago.

This statue honored King George.
