Making Appointments & Filling Out Forms

Filling out forms is a normal thing to do in lots of places. Say you made an appointment to see a doctor. You may have to fill out a 'new patient form'. This is so the doctor has all your information.

- ✓ Name
- ✓ Contact information (address, phone, email)
- ✓ Gender
- ✓ Marital status

There are two things you will be asked for. This is your personal and relevant information. Personal is your name and how to reach you.

Relevant is anything that applies to the reason for the visit. Say you're filling out a 'new patient form'. Relevant information will be the reason for the visit. It can also be any medicine you're taking and if you have any allergies.

Social Tip

Don't give out your phone or email if you don't want to be contacted.

Francis is a new patient. Here is a new patient form that Francis fills out.

Graphic Organizer

4. Use the graphic organizer on page 18 to help you fill out forms. All forms are different. One thing every form has in common is your personal information. The organizer is a sample of a general form. Fill out the form with your personal information. Keep this in a safe place. Somewhere you'll know where to find it. Use it as a reference when filling out forms.
