The ocean was a sight to see. The salty air was still, and the water was calm. Small waves rolled softly to shore. It was a perfect day for snorkeling. A hurricane had stirred up the water the day before. Tiggy and Tobias knew there were treasures awaiting after a hurricane.

The brother seacats searched the ocean floor for seashells. Tiggy stopped to admire a colorful fish that swam past. Tobias gazed upon a large stingray that glided through the water with elegance. The seacats enjoyed swimming among the creatures of the ocean.
