December 1990 – Magic is in the air

It's 7.30 on a sunny morning of the first week of December in the Pacific Ocean. Little Millie is now 9 months old and is being more and more playful. She is such an adorable and irresistible child loved by everyone in her surroundings. Mum and dad are so lucky to be gifted by angel Millie.

The Crawfield couple's business is flourishing more than ever now with Christmas around the corner. Their little shop was fully stocked with crafted Christmas presents and decorations from their local suppliers but Mrs. Crawfield doesn't want commercial puddings and gingerbread for her shop. 'Darling we need to do this for our church and our supportive community' she told her husband.

Two days before Christmas

As planned by lovely Mrs. Crawfield and with the help of Cathy, Jenny, Liz, Mary-Anne and Britney dozens of Christmas puddings were ready and about 100 pieces of gingerbread were beautifully and individually packed to thank every customer entering their shop as well as their neighbours and members of the community. Millie's dad was the proudest man on earth with a wonderful wife generosity and his cute daughter celebrating her first Christmas with them this year.

We wish you a 'Merry Merry Christmas'...

After Christmas Carol mass on the 25th, the Crawfield family gathered with other community members and relatives over a big summer barbeque lunch. Although it was steaming hot, it's a traditional thing in their country to light the outdoor grill. Their meal consists of giant prawns, ham, turkey and lamb accompanied by roasted vegetables, salad and several cold desserts including the popular 'Pavlova' commonly known as 'Pav'. Gathering every single person Grandpa, Grandma, uncles, aunties, cousins, grandchildren were all rejoicing on this magical Christmas day.
