

The Ghost of the Mountain

A person is shown from behind, sitting in a meditative pose (Padmasana) on a grassy field at night. The person's silhouette is dark against a bright, glowing, circular light source behind them, which creates a large, ethereal aura. The person's arms are extended horizontally to the sides, and their hands are open. The background is dark, with some tall grass visible on the right side.

My thoughts wander and land in my childhood: The Indian: With bow, arrow and tomahawk.

Now, I was on a mountain that was sacred, precisely because of the death of a mysterious indigenous man (the Medicine Man of the tribe).
