To my Dad, who would take us out in the rain in our little green coats.

To my sister Grace, who is never afraid to splash in puddles and sing into the world.

—Dan

For Mary, who always sees the sunshine through the rain.

With love, JLF

Rain dances down my window, reminding me I can't go outside.
Not without getting soggy and cold.

Tap,
tap,
tap.

The day has turned to a gloomy dusk.

"I've been stuck inside all day," I think.
Then I hear a jingling at our door . . .
